

Puppy Injured by Gunfire Needs Home

06/02/99

SEGUIN - A Guadalupe County animal rescue organization is seeking a home for a puppy found suffering from gunshot wounds.

The puppy was found Tuesday on a Huber Road property outside Seguin, said Judy Savage, who works with Buffalo Roam-Sanctuary in Seguin.

The wounded puppy is recuperating at a veterinarian's office and will go to the Southern Animal Rescue Association in Seguin for adoption.

Anyone interested in adopting the puppy can call Tracy Frank at (830) 372-4747.